Dear Gethsemane Baptist Temple,

I made this guide after delivering a Bible reading challenge on the final Sunday of 2019 as our church, Gethsemane Baptist Temple, heads in 2020. After some time thinking over such a plan, I finalized it around February 2018. Please let me know if you have any questions about it. And, please share it with others who desire to increase their intake of God's word this year.

The columns on the spreadsheet are as follows: Date, Day, Day Number, Prayer, OT Reading, NT Reading, and Completed. I will explain those below. Remember that the primary goal of this is to read God's word this year. You can adjust it as you see fit, or you can only attempt one or two columns and perhaps attempt all three columns next year. If this guide helps you to read more this year than you did last year, then I will consider it a blessing to both of us.

The plan will take you through the Old Testament (minus Psalms and Proverbs) at a rate of two chapters a day. It will take you through the New Testament by reading five chapters a week. For my purposes, I have considered the five days as Monday–Friday with the weekend for catching up.

The column called “Prayer” is where you will find daily readings from Psalms and Proverbs. This will take you through those two books twice a year. I have called it Prayer because it can be used for guiding your prayer that day. For example, on January 1, you can pray, “Lord, please help me this day to be like a tree drawing its strength from the water of your word like the blessed man of Psalm 1.” Similarly, on July 1, you can pray, “Father, I thank you for the virtuous woman of Proverbs 31. I also thank you for the women in my life who share godly wisdom. Help me to be like them.”

Ideally, you could use the “Prayer” column for your morning devotion. Then you could read through one New Testament chapter during your Monday–Friday lunch break. And before bed or during family evening devotion, you could read the Old Testament chapters. Obviously, our lives are all different, so adjust the plan as you see fit. For me, in a perfect world, I would read the Prayer in the morning, the Old Testament reading during my day, and the New Testament reading with my family five nights a week (taking off the church evenings of Sunday night and Wednesday night). However, don't get lost in making the plan fit your life perfectly. Remember the goal stated above: to read God's word this year. Best case scenario: you read the Bible more in 2020 than you did in 2019. Worst case scenario: even if you don't finish the plan, perhaps you will still read the Bible more in 2020 than you did in 2019.

Your youth pastor and brother-in-Christ,

Tony Walker
